Season of Septuagesima

The season of Septuagesima comprises the three weeks immediately preceding Lent. It forms one of the principal divisions of the liturgical year. All three are named from their numerical reference to Lent, which, in the language of the Church is called Quadragesima. that is, Forty, because the great feast of Easter is prepared for by the holy exercise of forty days.

The Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary –
February 2

The Feast of Candlemas, which derives in origin from the local observance of Jerusalem, marks the end of the Feasts included in the Christmas cycle of the liturgy. It is perhaps the most ancient festival of Our Lady. It commemorates, however, not only the obedience of the Blessed Virgin to the Mosaic Law in going to Jerusalem forty days after the birth of her Child and making the accustomed offerings, but also the Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple, and the meeting of the old man, Simeon—the Occursus Domini, as the Feast was anciently termed. This is the principal theme of the liturgy of this day: Jesus is taken to the Temple "to present Him to the Lord"
