The Month of March is dedicated to St. Joseph

Oh, St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God. I place in you all my interests and desires. Oh, St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers.

Living and Deceased Friends and Benefactors are remembered each month at Holy Mass

Lent continues –

Prayer, Fasting and giving Alms and support for the poor

Second Sunday in Lent

Let the sight of the grandeur of Jesus transfigured prepare us for the contemplation shortly of the humiliation of His Passion

Third Sunday in Lent

We see Jesus today, in open conflict with Satan and his works. So also during Lent, which is a time when the struggle against the devil is more intense, we should “live” as children of the light, performing actions good, just, and true.

Fourth Sunday of Lent-Laetare

“Laetare, Rejoice,” says the Introit. Laetare Sunday offers us a rest in the midst of the Lenten observance. We are soon to rise again with Jesus through confession and Easter Communion.

This Sunday is called Passion Sunday, because the Church begins on this day to make the Sufferings of our Redeemer her chief thought. It is called also Judica, from the first word of the Introit of the Mass; and again, Neomania, that is, the Sunday of the new (or, the Easter) moon, because it always falls after the new moon which regulates the Feast of Easter Day.

(The Liturgical Year, Abbot Guéranger, O.S.B.)

Pious Practices for Lent

Lent is a holy season set aside by the Church during which we are recommended to do extra prayer, penance, sacrifice, good works and almsgiving, plus to frequent the Sacraments and attend Mass more often – all for the welfare of our souls. And we should all keep before our minds that many a pious practice begun during Lent has become a lifelong virtuous habit that has thereby helped to perfect those who have made a mere “humble beginning” during Lent.

Prayer:

- An extra Mass or more each week. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the greatest prayer there is.
- A Holy Hour, once a week, twice a week, or each day.
- Read Mass of the day, spiritual books, lives of the Saints
- Pray for those in Purgatory. We have an obligation to pray for relatives and for anyone we may have harmed by our sins. A Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament after Mass is extremely efficacious for the Poor Souls and can lead to the gaining of a plenary indulgence – all other conditions for this being fulfilled.
- Pray for those who are in danger of dying without being in the state of Sanctifying Grace. Such prayers should be offered to Our Lady to apply as she desires, for she sees clearly who really needs the extra graces at any given time.
- Pray for anyone you may have had the misfortune to lead into sin.
- Pray for an end to abortion
- Pray for peace in the world. The Old Testament tells us, “The heart of the king is in the hand of the Lord: whithersoever he will, he shall turn it.” (Prov.21:1). Prayer can work miracles and change the hearts of even wicked rulers.
- Pray for the Pope and all priests
